The Hermitage - <http://thehermitage.com>

Considered by many historians to be the best preserved early U.S. presidential home, the mansion at The Hermitage has welcomed approximately 16 million visitors from around the world since opening as a museum in 1889.

An award-winning interior restoration was carried out between 1989 and 1997. Today, original furniture, wallpaper and family possessions give visitors a glimpse of what life was like for the family in the years of Andrew Jackson’s retirement.

Admission-

▪ Adult - $20.00

▪ Youth - $10.00

Country Music Hall of Fame - <http://countrymusichalloffame.org>

The Country Music Hall of Fame® and Museum seeks to collect, preserve, and interpret the evolving history and traditions of country music. Through exhibits, publications, and educational programs, the museum teaches its diverse audiences about the enduring beauty and cultural importance of country music.

Admission –

▪ Adult – $21.95

▪ Youth – $12.95

Activities Around Nashville

George Jones Museum - <http://georgejonesmuseum.com/museum>

The George Jones Museum opened in April in the buzzing heart of the new Nashville, with a sophisticated business plan, a rooftop bar and an event space with exposed brick walls that on that same night was hosting a technology firm's cocktail hour. With one boot in the old Nashville and one in the new, it reflects both a city being remade with gleaming condominium towers and an influx of newcomers, and one where country music remains a central if shifting strand of its DNA.

The Parthenon - <http://www.nashville.gov/Parks-and-Recreation/Parthenon.aspx>

The Parthenon stands proudly as the centerpiece of Centennial Park, Nashville's premier urban park. The re-creation of the 42-foot statue Athena is the focus of the Parthenon just as it was in ancient Greece. The building and the Athena statue are both full-scale replicas of the Athenian originals.
